Statement of Understanding

By signing this statement for participation in the programs of the Scioto County Cloverbud Day Camp, you acknowledge that certain activities are physically demanding. Therefore, physical fitness will increase an individual’s enjoyment and ability to participate in the activity. If for any reason you question your (or your child’s) ability to participate in the activity, please consult with the instructors prior to participation.

While it is impossible to foresee all possible dangers, some of the specific hazards which might be encountered by participants in our Outdoor Education programs and activities, which includes running and jumping during games, slipping or falling, insect bites, poison ivy, bumps, bruises, cuts, sprains, fractures or other associated injuries and hazards. Most activities are conducted outdoors, in all kinds of weather, so proper dress (and sunscreen) may be essential to avoid undue exposure to the elements.

Course instructors will take every reasonable precaution to minimize exposure to known risks, however, as a participant (or parent/guardian of a participant) you acknowledge the nature of the activity and the fact that not all of the stresses and hazards connected with these activities can be foreseen.

Participants have the personal responsibility to follow the established safety rules and procedures to the extent that they participate in such activities. If at any time a participant has questions about an activity, they have the responsibility to consult with the instructor.

“I recognize that there is a significant element of risk in any adventure, sport, or activity associated with the outdoors. Knowing the inherent risks, dangers and rigors involved in the activities, I certify that my family and I, including any minor children, are fully capable of participating in the activities.”
